Gordon Radom - 1966 Ford T-Bird

Gordon Radom - 1966 Ford T-Bird Convertible

I grew up on Vancouver Island in British Columbia and my Dad bought new cars, old cars, pick-ups, almost every other year.

Most of them were Ford, Mercury, Chevy, Buick, Studebaker, English and Japanese cars.

I've been wanting a 1966 T-Bird for probably 30 years, and two years ago I could not find one so I bought a 1979 Lincoln Continental Mark V, because I just could not stand it any longer- I needed an old classic car!

I found the T-Bird in Florida last year and finally bought it this past spring.

I had it shipped up here in a covered truck.

Now that I have found the T-Bird, the Lincoln is FOR SALE!

I am thoroughly enjoying my new car.
